ORDER ON JOINT MOTION

The parties to this action have reached a proposed class action settlement, subject to court approval. The parties move jointly for certification of a class for settlement purposes, and for preliminary approval of the settlement terms. The Court conducted a hearing on November 10, 2016. Based on the joint motion of the parties and all other matters of record, and for the reasons summarized in open court and now detailed here, the Court finds and orders:

1. The Settlement Agreement and the settlement it embodies are preliminarily approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate. This Order incorporates by reference the definitions in the Class Action Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) and all terms defined therein shall have the same meaning in this Order as set forth therein.

2. The Court finds that the requirements of Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) are satisfied by the proposed class definition, and the Court certifies the following class for settlement purposes:

all individual judgment debtors who were subject to a Michigan garnishment that: (1) was initiated between the dates of January 7, 2008 and the Preliminary Approval Date (the “Class Period”); (2) was signed by Schisler Law, P.L.C., Scott A. Schisler, Rustin Allen Schisler, or one of Schisler Law, P.L.C.’s attorneys; (3) was filed during the class period; and (4) included in the amount of the unsatisfied judgment then due (a) the costs of that garnishment or (b) the costs of a prior, unsuccessful garnishment (that is, a garnishment for which the garnishee did not disclose that it was indebted to the defendant, held any property subject to garnishment, or was the defendant’s employer at the time it was served with the garnishment and for which the judgment creditor was not paid any money by the garnishee pursuant to the garnishment as of the effective date of the proposed Agreement in this lawsuit.

The following persons, assuming that they otherwise meet the Class definition, will be excluded from the settlement class:

- a. any person who is already subject to an existing general release that covers either of the defendants;
- b. any person who is deceased as of the date of preliminary certification;
- c. any person who has filed for bankruptcy protection under Title 11 of the United States Code on or after the start of the Class Period; and
- d. any Class Member who timely mails a request for exclusion.

3. For purposes of implementing the settlement, named Plaintiff Andrea Stevens is appointed the class representative, and Michael O. Nelson and Phillip C. Rogers are appointed as counsel for the Settlement Class (“Class Counsel”). If the Settlement Agreement terminates by its terms, nothing in this Order shall prevent a return of the parties to the litigation status in effect immediately prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement.

4. The Notice of Class Action Lawsuit and Proposed Settlement (“Notice”) is attached as Exhibit A.

5. As soon as practicable, but no later than January 15, 2017, Defendants, or their designee, will print, copy, and mail the Class Notice to the Class Members at the most current address reflected in Defendants’ records, with a notation on the envelopes requesting address correction. If any notice is returned with a new address, the notice will be re-mailed to the new address. As to any class member whose notice is returned without a forwarding address Defendants or their designee, shall run such Class Member through the National Change of Address database to seek a good address and they shall re-send the Notice to any Class Member for whom it is able to obtain a new address as a result of such search. Defendants shall use their best efforts to provide prompt re-sending of any returned notices. However, Defendant and its attorneys shall not be responsible for the failure of the Postal Service to timely deliver or return a class notice. Defendants shall have no obligation to re-send a notice that is not returned by the Postal Service less than seven days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing.
